Kim - that was exactly the answer I was looking for. Please keep us in the loop, but as a layman, I may ask a question or two.

Thanks again,

Bryant

Bryant the email was a routine notification we send air carriers when there is a BWA

Pls let us know how to best coordinate w you on routine communications i.e. send to you prior if needed

Thanks Kim. Just to clarify, why did EPA send this notification vs Corpus Christi or TCEQ?

Hi EPA Region 6 Air Carriers,

I wanted to inform you that due to conditions within the City of Corpus Christi caused by Hurricane Harvey, the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality has required the City of Corpus Christi to notify all of their customers to boil their water prior to consumption. Please do not board water from the Corpus Christi airport (CRP) onto your aircraft until the boil water advisory has lifted.
